

Is your restaurant paying too much for 3rd-party ordering?

Instead of commissions, you should be spending your money on updating your menu, staff, or space.

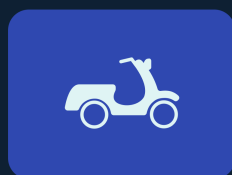

Let's see how much you pay now and find better ways to reinvest in your restaurant.

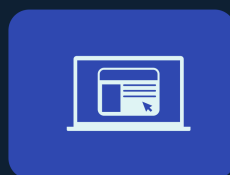

Better ways to invest your money

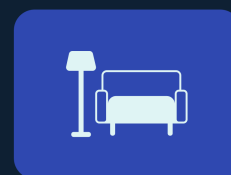

Add limited menu items to offer diners something new.

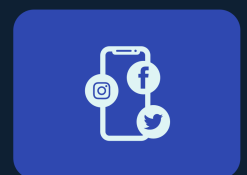

Expand your reach with in-house delivery drivers.

Revamp your website or build a branded mobile app.

Add outdoor seating or a takeout window to your space.

Create appetizing photos for your menu and social media.
